

REMARKS

Claim amendments

Claims 1 and 7-11 have been amended to more clearly indicate that the DNA fragment is combined with DNA comprising one or more sequences complementary to one or more intergenic regions of genomic DNA of the cell, under conditions in which hybridization between the DNA fragment and the one or more sequences complementary to one or more intergenic regions of the genomic DNA occurs; and one or more sequences complementary to the one or more intergenic regions of genomic DNA to which the DNA fragment hybridizes are identified. Support for the amendment can be found, for example, on page 2, line 26; page 3, line 20; page 6, line 25; page 7, line 25; page 11, lines 14 and 19; page 12, line 3; page 18, line 5; and Examples 1-4 of the specification.

Traversal of the Restriction Requirement

As indicated in the MPEP:

If the search and examination of an entire application can be made without serious burden, the examiner must examine it on the merits, even though it includes claims to distinct or independent inventions (MPEP 803, 8th edition, page 800-4, column 1).

A search of the methods in the subject application can be made without serious burden since the art that will be searched for the claimed subject matter of Groups I and II involves genes or genomic DNA of a cell bound by DNA binding protein present in the cell.

Therefore, although the subject application includes distinct or independent invention, Applicants respectfully request that the restriction requirement be withdrawn.

Second Supplemental Information Disclosure Statement

A Second Supplemental Information Disclosure Statement (IDS) is being filed concurrently herewith. Entry of the IDS is respectfully requested.

CONCLUSION

In view of the above amendments and remarks, it is believed that all claims are in condition for allowance, and it is respectfully requested that the application be passed to issue. If the Examiner feels that a telephone conference would expedite prosecution of this case, the Examiner is invited to call the undersigned.

Respectfully submitted,
